

LITERARY NOTES.

An American edition of a striking book lately reviewed in THE TRIBUNE—M. Stepienski's "Underground Russia"—will shortly be brought out by Charles Scribner's Sons. It is a volume which all persons interested in Russian misgovernment and in Nihilistic methods will be sure to read.

"An Average Man" is the title of the new novel which Mr. Robert Grant, the author of the "Privileged Girl," is about to give to the world—first in the pages of a magazine and then in book form.

Mr. Remond's "Recollections of my Childhood and Youth" will be brought from the press of G. P. Putnam's Sons in a few days. The book has been delayed by M. Remond's many revisions of the original when the English version had gone into type.

The FAMILIA LIBRARY MONTHLY PAPERS will be good reading for all the family. They are well written and illustrated by the best English writers.
